

Fire Information

Kemmerer Ranger District
Bridger-Teton National Forest
U.S. Department of Agriculture

Bull Fire

Location: Bridger-Teton National Forest

Cause: Lightning

Discovered: September 10, 2015

Size: 50 Acres

The Bull Fire was reported on September 10. The fire is located on Bull Mtn. and in the Bull Creek area, between Lake Alice and Commissary Ridge.

- Provide for safety for all personnel to the incident. Assure that the safety of fire fighter, aviation, support personnel, and the public is the highest priority at all times for the duration of the incident.
- Manage for natural resource benefit and property protection.
- Provide and maintain timely communications and information to the public.
- Protect values at risk from any fire damage.
- There are no road or trail closures at this time.

